Homicide:

Deputies responded to numerous 911 calls shortly after midnight this morning at the Madison Cove Apartments. The calls ranged from a disturbance, a stabbing, vandalism and a hit-and-run crash involving a pedestrian. Deputies arrived at the front of the complex finding a B/F deceased in the road way. According to witness accounts, the B/F had been intentionally run over by a suspect who fled the scene.

Apparently, Anthony Artell Little, went to the apartment of the female, Carol Ann Stokes, around midnight. Little became involved in a disturbance with Stokes and another man at the residence, B/M David Reaves, 08/31/75. Little, at one point in the argument, stabbed Reaves in the lower back with a knife. Stokes and Reaves fled from the apartment. Little then vented his anger on the vehicle of Stokes, slashing the tires and causing other damage to the car before leaving.

Little apparently saw Stokes and Reaves as he was driving out of the complex. Stokes attempted to flee towards Archer Road. According to witnesses, Little backed up his car and deliberately accelerated towards Stokes and ran her over. Little then fled the scene. The vehicle was later recovered at Little's apartment complex, 1120 NW 45th Avenue, Gainesville.

Detectives are asking anyone with information on the location of B/M, Anthony Artell Little, 01/15/76, to contact Crime Stoppers, at 372-STOP.
