Attempted Home Invasion/Shooting into an Occupied Dwelling:

Deputies arrested a man and woman for shooting into an occupied dwelling and attempted home invasion robbery after the victims were able to positively identify the attackers. The two victims, Shawn Jakowczuk and Jelani Hampden, who were inside the residence, advised deputies that the two suspects first attempted to gain entry into the apartment. After that was unsuccessful, the male subject produced a handgun and fired four shots into Hampden's bedroom window. The two suspects then fled the area. Hampden advised the altercation occurred because he apparently owed the female suspect money for previous back rent.

Deputies made contact with the two suspects at their residence, 3643 SW 20th Avenue, #902. The two were positively identified by the victims. W/M Shaun Johnson, 08/08/84 was arrested and charged with Attempted Home Invasion and Shooting into an Occupied Dwelling. W/F, Tina Bridges, 03/02/84, was arrested for Attempted Home Invasion.

No one was injured in the incident.
