Media Advisory: Shooting

Deputies with the Alachua County Sheriff's Office responded to a 911 call of a shooting at Benwood Subdivision early this morning. A sixteen year-old victim was up late playing video games with a neighbor when he went into the kitchen. The friend heard a struggle and gunshots, which also woke the victim's parents who were asleep in another room of the home. They responded to the kitchen to find the victim, Sebastian A. Ochsenius, W/M, DOB 12/03/1993, on the floor with gunshot wounds. EMS pronounced the victim deceased on scene.

Detectives with the Alachua County Sheriff's Office are seeking information on this crime from the community and have conducted neighborhood canvasses in the area. To report information contact Detective Dale Buffenmyer at (352) 367-4188.

Anyone that provides information on this crime that leads to an arrest and seizure of a firearm is eligible for a $1,000 cash reward through the Alachua County Gun Bounty Program. The gun bounty callers can remain anonymous throughout the process by calling Crime Stoppers at (352) 372-STOP (7867). It is our belief that the Gun Bounty Program will encourage the community's involvement and play a key role in being able to quickly identify and locate these violent suspects.
